

SOWA

Super Oxidized Water contains Hypochlorous Acid (HOCl) which is nature's last line of defense against infection. Hereby introducing unique Over-the-counter management of skin abrasions, lacerations, minor irritations, cuts & intact skin.

Composition:

- Super Oxidized Water
- Sodium Hypochloride
- Hypochlorous acid
- Sodium Chloride

Mechanism of action:

In vivo, white blood cells combine myeloperoxidase and hydrogen peroxide to produce HOCl to effectively eradicate all types of pathogens.

Clinical Efficacy: Significant published peer reviewed publications more than 30 clinical trials Controlled Randomized and Double Blind Trial(s) done over 6 million patients treated without significant adverse results.

Indications:

- It is a super-oxidized solution for use in the debriment, irrigation and moistening of acute and chronic wounds.
- Reduces the microbicidal actions and assists in creating a moist environment thereby enabling the body to perform its own healing process.
- Can be broadly used as an integral part of comprehensive wound management and care.

Directions for use: It is a ready for use with no mixing or dilution required. Apply directly to the affected area by immersion, pouring, spraying, pressure jetting or via a saturated gauze or dressing.

Regulatory Status: More than 10 FDA clearances, CE approvals and approvals by foreign countries

Packaging: Each pack contains 1 unit of 100 ml Super-oxidized solution + 1 spray Pump

Category: Medical device/Drug/Cosmetic